

Center for Terrorism Law

Monthly Activity Report

December 2011

1. The International Association of Maritime Security Professionals (IAMSP) and the Center for Terrorism Law will co-host a two-day international conference that focuses exclusively on the full realm of legal and policy issues associated with acts of piracy against commercial vessels. The conference is entitled: International Piracy and Maritime Security: Legal and Policy Issues for Business and Government. Subject matter experts from legal, industry, government, and military will present detailed information to include: background of piracy; Somali piracy; civil suit liability; criminal liability; international maritime law; insurance coverage; use of force; terrorism; and training of security personnel and maritime employees. The conference will be held on 20-21 February 2012, at St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas. For more information about this groundbreaking conference please contact: terrorismlaw@stmarytx.edu; or (210) 431-2219.

2. The Center for Terrorism Law with the Ambivium Institute on Security and Cooperation, will co-host the 3rd Annual Conference on Terrorism and Global Security sometime in Spring 2012. Location: Washington, DC. More details to follow.

3. The Center for Terrorism Law has prepared a chapter on interrogation issues for a book entitled: Contemporary Debates in Terrorism. The book will be published by Routledge Publishing Company and will be edited by Professor Richard Jackson (Aberystwyth University) and Samuel Justin Sinclair (Harvard University).

4. Professor Addicott is writing a new law review article on domestic terrorism. The extensive work will be finished sometime in the early 2012.

5. Professor Addicott latest book (along with co-editors) is published by Oxford University Press. The book is entitled: Globalization, International Law, and Human Rights, Addicott, Bhuiyan, & Chowdhury (New Delhi, India: Oxford University Press, 2012).

6. The Center for Terrorism Law is a non-profit 501(c)(3). We operate entirely on private donations and public grants. All gifts are tax deductible. If you are interested in supporting the Center for Terrorism Law please contact jaddicott@stmarytx.edu.
